Greetings and welcome to my Treasure  Chest of Codes for Magnificent Living.

My passion is helping my clients overcome their limitations so that they may live life Magnificently. I offer a variety of coaching programs that inspire, uplift, and give my clients the tools for Living Magnificently.

In my years as coach and mentor, I've seen how people live their lives in fear and struggle hoping for a miracle. Individuals from all walks of life come to me because they are stressed, overwhelmed, and longing for relief.

You've probably heard that life is supposed to be fun. Well, you can't get a whiff of fun when you're feeling depressed on your job, disappointed in your relationships, and discredited in your finances.

Working with my clients I began to see some common patterns that transcended background and physical makeup. That is, some people seemed to have a natural tendency towards inner happiness and outer success, while many others seemed to remain caught in constant struggle no matter what they did.

It became my single focus to find out why. And when I'd answered every question, I realized I'd uncovered the keys, the codes to unlock every secret! I knew that I'd literally taken The Path To Everything and walked right through the veil! I knew how to deliberately Live Magnificently!

You can imagine how excited I was. Now I know why every spiritual tradition, ancient wisdom, and even modern science are in complete agreement with all that I have uncovered.

Part of the excitement was in finding the codes. These codes are amazing! Once you know them you can use them to manage Universal Laws in ways that give you absolute dominion over your life and affairs.

Now here's the good news and the not so good news. The good news is that these secret codes are actually embedded in our DNA. They are part of our makeup, inseparable from who we are. The not so good news is that rarely do we know how to access these codes, or even if we access them, how to decode and use them effectively.

I want you, and everyone else desiring, to have total access to these essential codes, and the means to use them effectively. The challenge is that although the process of activating and utilizing these code is simple, it is not always easy to master. It helps to have an instructional system, a step by step process.

To assist you with that I've developed The Path To Everything, a 32-week mentorship program, which I also offer in two 16-week programs. This is a powerful program which gives you immediate access to all the codes. Using a spiritual manifestation process, within days you will begin to direct, control, and quickly establish the results you desire in every area of your life. Perhaps for the first time in your life you will feel confident that you do have the power to create anything!

There is one more essential component to this powerful process...YOU. You must have an intense desire to transform your life. The Path To Everything is designed specifically for those who are serious about amplifying their power, managing their energy, and effecting positive change in their lives.

The Path To Everything is powerful. The learning, integrating and automatizing processes I offer give you the Codes to Living Life Magnificently.

For each individual to get maximum benefit I limit The Path To Everything class size to 12 persons. Yes, that's it, only 12 individuals!

There is no substitute for the 32-week Path process. If I could give it to you in an instant I would gladly do so. I can tell you for sure, it just does not work that way.

However, I can do this:

I can give you three Codes from my Treasure Chest of Codes.

One of the best kept secrets is that you create your world whether or not you know you are creating it. Your world as you see and experience it is real to you, sometimes magnificently so, sometimes painfully so. Those things you have created from limited and fearful belief can cause you to have all manner of unpleasant experiences. Likewise, all that you create from pure thought brings you joy.

What you focus on impresses upon the undefined vastness of Infinite Intelligence. That is, your thought activates and defines Pure Intelligence. By Law, Infinite Intelligence sets itself in motion according to thought impressed upon it. Simply put, as it is thought, so it is...literally.

Now, there is lag time. You do not instantly manifest every thought. Yes, every thought sets an action in motion, however, what is ultimately manifested in your life and affairs is the result of your dominantly held thoughts, and especially those you hold passionately. So you want to develop the habit of choosing thoughts that ultimately lead you to manifesting your desires.

You are a vibrational being in a vibrational universe, and Divine Law dictates that you vibrationally attract to yourself that which is of like kind. You are, in fact, a most powerful transmitting and receiving "station" sending and attracting according to the frequencies you choose. The immutable Law of Attraction always brings back to you that, and all like that, which matches the frequencies you are broadcasting.

Nothing is edited or filtered out. As you focus your thoughts and add passionate feeling, a "mold" is cast that assumes the shape, so to speak, of your thoughts. If you continue to hold your focused thoughts in a particular direction, the matching images must become "real" in manifest form in your life and affairs. This is Law. It cannot be otherwise.

So to manifest what you want, when you want it, as you want it you must first practice aligning your focused thoughts, your feeling nature, and your desires on the frequency channels or station that produce the results you want.

For example, you may want to manifest the home of your dreams. Yet your focused thoughts and feelings are on how difficult, even impossible, that would be, given your current circumstances and how you currently perceive your future. You may be thinking, I don't have enough money to buy or build my dream home. I don't have the skills or training (or intelligence, talent, or whatever you may feel) to earn the kind of money I'd need to have my dream house. I just don't see myself ever having that much money, not in this lifetime."

In this scenario, your dominantly held thoughts and feelings do not match your desire. And since you create from your dominantly held thoughts and feelings, you are casting the mold to match "not having the home of your dreams."

You can only have the object of your focus. You will always get what you want, or what you don't want, according to the vibrational essence you offer with your focused thoughts and feelings. So you might as well practice being aware of how you are directing your thoughts and how you feel.

To help you with this, here are three Codes from my Treasure Chest of Codes.

Code #1: You get what you want exactly as you want it by Intending it.

Code #2: You get what you want exactly as you want it by Scripting it.

Code #3: You get want you want exactly as you want it by Ordering it.

Consistently setting intention, scripting your desires into manifest form, and using the powerful Order Form will help develop your skills for Deliberate Manifestation.

Effective use of these three Codes will unlock many doors for you, and help you develop mastery, dominion, and ultimately continuous Magnificent Living.

I am delighted to give you these Codes and I encourage you to use them daily. Doing so puts you in the right direction.

For some of you this may be all you require. However, for others, perhaps for most, you require more. You may not know much about Intention Setting and Scripting for pre-paving, magnetizing, and manifesting. And you may not know about the very powerful Order Form and how to use it effectively. You may also know that you get pumped up to use gifts you've previously received only to fizzle out way before you get near the point of mastery.

Think about it. Can you hold your own feet to the fire? Probably not. And here's why. When you begin the process of Deliberate Manifestation you go through a re-patterning process. Re-patterning includes continually surrendering old patterns that don't serve you, including the ones you are comfortable with even though you know they do not serve you. Re-patterning also includes continually choosing to BE your authentic self. And it includes a game plan for managing your energy to the point of mastery.

If you are one who is called to commit, maintain your commitment, and manage your emotional energy for mastering Magnificent Living, email me at jamelle@livinginspirit.net, or call me at 770-486-6961.

The Path To Everything or one of my other coaching programs may be a perfect match for you. You will get your own Treasure Chest and all the Codes in it, and more. The best is that you will be shown how to USE the Codes for immeasurable benefit for the rest of your life. You will be shown HOW to Live Magnificently, and you will have all the support you need every step of the way!

Now here is the bonus gift I promised you.

You may apply the cost of The Three Codes toward any of my coaching programs, including private coaching with me. And if you call me within the next 7 days, you will receive an additional surprise bonus.
